

Thank you for your interest in Maine Historical Society's Public Library Membership and Pass Program

Library Membership Guidelines

Rate:

- $75.00 for one* annual MHS Public Library Membership with seven (7) passes. Your membership expires one year from the date of purchase.
*You may choose to purchase more than one membership, and will receive a number of passes in accordance with your number of memberships.

Benefits:

- Library passes are transferrable to patrons of the purchasing library.
- With the pass, up to four (4) of your patrons receive:

Admission Type	Regular Admission Rate	Rate with the Library Pass
Museum Galleries	$8	Free
Wadsworth-Longfellow House	$7	$5
MHS's Research Library Day Use	$10	$5
MHS Museum Store	10% off	10% off

- Maine Historical Society's biannual publication, Maine History, as well as MHS's Member Newsletter are included and will be sent to the participating library.

Additional Information:

- With each membership, your library will receive seven (7) passes to be issued one per day of the week. Patrons do not need to use the pass on the day of check-out, but libraries should limit the number of passes available for check-out to one per day.
- Your library may determine the length of time each pass may be checked-out to your patrons.
- We request each library limit the number of times each patron may take out a pass to MHS to once per month.
- Passes may not be used for special events, special tours, or evening programs.
- Renewal reminders for your membership with MHS will be sent out annually and new passes will be issued upon renewal.
- Maine Historical Society is not responsible for lost or stolen passes.
